INDORSEMENT IS NOT BINDING

State Executive Labor Board's Procedure is Rejected.

ACTION DENOUNCED.

Richmond Typographical Union No. 90, Calls For Removal of Members From Office.

Richmond, Va., uly 21. — Three hours of stormy debate at the special meeting of the Central Trade and Labor Council, called yesterday afternoon to take action on the Brown resolution adopted on July 11 by the executive board of the Virginia Federation of Labor, and of the Farmers' Union of Virginia, resulted in the adoption of the following resolution offered by President Hirschberg:

"We the members of the Central Trade and Labor Council of the City of Richmond, do not accept the endorsement of the State executive Board as binding on any trades unionist in the city."

The resolution was offered by Mr. Hirschberg after the meeting had given ear for an hour to four or five federation committeemen who signed the July 11 resolution endorsing J. Thompson Brown, of Bedford City, for the position of Commissioner of Agriculture. The speakers stood by their endorsement and told the meeting that they had nothing to retract. The Hirschberg resolution was put to a vote and carried 22 to 10.

Planned to be a searching interrogation of the five members of the board ,which had dared to "put the Virginia Federation of Labor into politics," yesterday's meeting simmered down to a free-for-all-debate on the point of the authority of the executive committe to act in the manner that it did, followed by the adoption of a diplomatic resolution, neither repudiating or affirming its action, but declaring merely that the local labor men will not regard the Brown indorsement as binding.

The noncommittal language of the resolution was the matter of some comment last night. It satisfied a number of trade unionists who were jealous of the Federation's liberty of thought and action, without actually denouncing the executive board's endorsement. On the other hand there were those who felt that the resolution was more diplomatic than decisive, and that it should have disclaimed the board's action in more certain terms.

President John Hirschberg presided over the meeting, which was held at the Labor Temple. The delegates voted immediately after being called to order to exclude newspaper reporters. The entire debate, lasting from 4:30 in the afternoon until almost 8 o'clock at night was carried on behind closed doors.

The discussion brought out for the first time the text of the resolution adopted by the executive boards of the labor and farmers' organizations in July 11. The two boards met in Richmond ostensibly for the purpose of conferring jointly upon the proposition to publish a weekly paper devoted to the interest of farmers and union men. While in session the boards endorsed the following resolution:

"After a careful consideration of the records of G. W. Koiner, Commissioner of Agriculture and John Thompson Brown,and the things practiced by one, and the things advocated by the other, we are of the opinion that the best interests of the farmers and all interested parties will be best served by supporting John Thompson Brown for Commissioner of Agriculture, because he stands for harmony and co-operation between all agricultural agencies in the State which co-operation has not heretofore been practiced."

When the heart is bowed down with a weight of trouble and there is no relief in sight, go with your friends to a place where trouble vanishes like "Schooners that pass in the night." Go with the Elks' Dancing Club to Colonial Beach tomorrow.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Two new telegraph cables will connect the United States and England by way of the Azores. The contract was signed yesterday between the Portuguese government and the Europe and Azores Telegraph Company.

Big Four passenger train No. 11 plowed into the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern passenger train, due in Cleveland at 4:25 a. m., between Perry and Madison east of Cleveland, Ohio, early Friday, while the Lake Shore train was held up by a freight stalled ahead of it. The impact splintered the Lake Shore dining car to pieces and telescoped the next car, a Pullman, injuring twelve persons.

While in a faint, Harry D. Wingert, a graduate of Western Reserve University, Pittsburgh, Pa., was choked to death here Thursday night by his collar. Wingert returned to Pittsburgh last evening from a western trip, and dropped into the office of a friend. Not finding his friend, he sat down to wait. He was evidently overcome by the heat and fell. His neck caught between a wall at the end of an office partition, and the collar caused strangulation.

The body of a well-dressed young woman was found by a farmer Friday in an upright position to a fence post beside a cornfield. The fence was only a few yards from the county highway near Oak Forest, Ill. The woman was not more than 25 years old. Her gold watch was still pinned to the breast of her dress and a pocketbook lay near her. Physicians think the woman may have been dead two days. No means of identification were among the effects found She was supported by a strip of cloth evidently torn from her dress, and tied around her neck and to the post. It is thought unlikely that the woman committed suicide.

An automobile party traveling along the Notch Road from Montclair to Paterson, N. J., yesterday morning, saw a big bird, which looked like an eagle, swoop down on a farmyard and ascend with a small dog in its claws . Many persons have reported the disappearance of dogs and cats, but it was not known until yesterday what took them.

Getting off a passenger train at Trinway, where they intended to pick blackberries, two employes of the Pennsylvania railroad, living in Columbus, O., were killed instantly and another was seriously injured yesterday when struck by another passenger train.

Two crowded trolley cars of the Willow Grave division collided yesterday afternoon at Germantown and Chelten avenues, Philadelphia. The motormen of both cars misunderstood the signals, and the cars came together with such force that the fronts were telescoped. That none were killed was regarded as miraculous.

Edmund Frank Green, San Francisco, financier, clubman and author, has been found $1,500 short in his accounts as president of the Pacific Coast Casualty Company, and has left. Green is a member of the Bohemian Club, and alumnus of Yale and Columbia Universities, a successful broker and business man, and the author of verses which have appeared in prominent magazines. He is 58 years old and was a classmate of former President Taft at Yale.

An extensive bomb plot was frustrated early yesterday by the police who swoopeed down upon the plotters and placed several under arrest just as they were about to start out in automobiles with several baskets of explosives in Lisbon. Several shots were fired at the police and one policeman was killed and several bystanders injured by a bomb thrown from one of the automobiles. Those arrested are said to be members of the Radical Socialist party.

Announcement was made yesterday that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will on and after September 1, discontinue free store-door delivery of freight in Washington and Baltimore. These two cities are the only two in the country enjoying free delivery at the present time. The reason started by the railroad company for its proposed action is that the condition which at one time justified the privilege no longer exists, and the practice should be abandoned.

DEMANDS MAY BE WITHDRAWN

Danger of Immediate Strike of Railroad Men is Averted.

WANT 20 PER CT. MORE.

Employes Will Not Enter Into Any Negotiations Unless Roads Withdraw Their Demands.

New York, July 21. — When the Federal Board of Mediation met here today to take up the disagreement between the Eastern railroads and their conductors and trainmen, it was understood the conference of railroad managers were prepared to withdraw the eight demands of the railroads. This would, mean that the only demand of the men for a 20 per cent, increase in wages would be considered, and danger of an immediate strike order would be averted.

The employes have stod firm in their declaration that they would only enter into any negotiations unless the railroads withdrew their demands.

The only work of the mediators will be the formal drafting of the demands made by the conductors and trainmen to be submitted to the board of arbitration. Although the railroad managers may agree ta withdraw their demands at the present time, by giving their employes' thirty days notice they may again bring up the demands for consideration by the board of arbitration.

MAN ASSAULTED.

Victim of Attack Badly Used up—Assailant Forfeits Collateral.

Some excitement was caused on Royal street between King and Cameron, Saturday afternoon by a difficulty between two white men, William Clair and Wilmer Redman, during whch the latter knocekd Clair down and treated him brutally.

Officer Young appeared on the scene and took the two men in charge as well as G. W. Kitson, who the officer alleged, interfered with him in the discharge of his duty and applied ugly epithets towards him.

The case was called in the Police Court this morning when it appeared from the testimony that the assault was unprovoked. Clair's left eye was badly swollen. Redman was not on hand, nor was Kitson, and their collateral was declared forfeited. The charge against Clair of fighting was dismissed.

NEGROES IN A FIGHT.

Principals And Witnesses in the Police Court This Morning.

Officers Young and Campbell on Saturday arrested John Green, colored, (not John Green employed at Reardon's wharf), at the instance of Alfred Lewis, colored, who alleged that Green had made an unprovoked attack upon him with a knife.

The parties were arraigned in the Police Court this morning, when the evidence showed that both negroes were engaged in a fight in a saloon in the southwest section of the city where several negresses had gathered. It was shown by some of the witnesses that Lewis had armed himself with beer bottles and used them on Green, the latter exhibiting a cut on the top of his head, and that the latter drew a knif and slashed Lewis on the left cheek. They were fined $5 each.

Five young negro women, who appeared as witneses, were fined $5 each for vagrancy, as, according to the police, they lead idle lives and are regular loiters about saloons.

MORE SUSPICION CAUSED BY JAPAN

Said to be Negotiating For Land in Mexico For Colony.

LODGE RESOLUTION.

Mexican Situation Intensified by Dual Issue—Diaz to Visit Island Kingdom.

Tokyo, July 21. — The probable mission of Gen. Felix Diaz, of Mexico, who is being sent as a special envoy to Japan, by President Huerta, today was the subject of general comment and attention in Tokyo. That there is an ulterior motive in the comng of Diaz, is the opinion of Japanese diplomats, though they differ in their statements of that motive.

It is believed by some that President Huerta is taking this means to exile General Diaz, his rival, for the rulership of Mexico, while others predict that Diaz is coming to negotiate an alliance between Mexico and Japan.

Unofficial rumors were current here that President Huerta would soon forward Japan a formal offer of 50,000 acres of Mexican land, asked by the Japanese for colonization purposes, and it is possible General Diaz may convey this offer.

Washington, July 21. — Another tense component to the situation in Mexico now facing President Wilson was added today with the unofficial report received from the southern republic to the effect that 50,000 Japanese colonists will be granted special concessions from Mexico to settle in the province of Morelos. The colonization in any of the South or Central American republics by foreign powers, is disapproved by United States. Nearly a year ago the now famous Lodge resolution was adopted by the Senate. It was as follows:

"Resolved: That when any harbor or other place in the American continent is so situated that the occupation thereof for naval or military purposes might threaten the communicatons or he safety of the United States, the Government of the United States could not see without grave concern, the actual or potential possession of such harbor or other places by any government, not American, as to give that government practical power of control for naval or military purposes."

COLORED MAN KILLED.

Struck by Electric Car While Lying on Track Near Rosemont.

An unidentified colored man, about thirty-five years old, was struck and killed by a car of the Washington Utilities Company at 1:45 o'clock yesterday morning, between the Union station and Rosemont near the city limits. The car was work car, No. 13, bringing one of the extra crews to Alexandria, in charge of William Rooney, night foreman, at Four Mile run. The man was lying on the track, his head on one rail and his feet lying on the other. The car was slowing up for the Union station, and the motorman states that he was not making over twelve miles an hour.

The man's body was badly crushed but he was alive when picked up. A quick run was made to the Alexandria Hospital, where Dr. William M. Smith, attended the man. He died shortly after reaching the hospital. The remains were later removed to B. Wheatley's establishment.

A coroner's jury assembled at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and viewed the body. Dr. Moore, cororner, ordered the jury adjourned over until 6 o'cock this evening when testimony will be heard. It is composed of the following E. J. Dwyer, S. W. Pitts, James B. Fitzgerald, A. S. Doniphan, Conway Brawner, and T. F. King.

HUERTA REGIME NEARING THE END

Ambassador Wilson on His Way to Washington for Conference.

HE MAY NOT RETURN.

President Said to be Displeased With Ambassador and Entire American Consulate.

Washington, July 21.—It was learned today that direct information has come to President Wilson from reliable sources in Mexico to the effect that the Huerta government is nearing a downfall.

With this information coming from sources upon which the president relies absolutely, is an intimation that the president would not be averse to hearing more from the revolutionists constituting the constitutionalist party under the leadership of General Carranza, what they propose to do in the event of success in their attempts to overthrown the present regime.

Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson, now on his way to Washington from Mexico City, will arrive here, according to the White House advices, not later than Friday morning, and perhaps Thursday evening. His conference with the President and the Secretary of State will take place some time Friday.

That it will not be an altogether pleasant interview is indicated by the fact that President Wilson has received information from the same reliable sources, it is said, that the American representative in Mexico City has been openly outspoken in his opinion that this government should recognize the Huerta administration.

In view of this information, it is probable that, as a result of next Friday's conference, Mr. Wilson will not return to Mexico as the American Ambassador, and, pending developments hourly approaching a complete dissolution of the Huerta government, the American legation will be left in charge of the first secretary, Nelson O'Shaughnessy.

Not only is the President said to be displeased with the attitude of the American ambassador, but with the entire American outfit in Mexico, reports from which have been misleading and frequently contradictory.

So unsatisfactory, indeed, have the services of these consuls proved during the present Mexican crisis, that it is known that the President has been lately relying almost exclusively on advices from private sources, and, because of these advices, decided to recall Mr. Wilson for the ostensible purpose of getting personal information from him regarding conditions below the Rio Grande.

REGATTA LAST SATURDAY

Many People Gather on River Front to Witness Interesting Event

The regatta held Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Old Dominion Boat Club was a success in every way.

A large crowd turned out to witness the races which were all hotly contested and very exciting.

The race between the four-oared shell and the Centipede were especially exciting, the shell winning by a very close margin, so close, that many people thought that the Centipede had won.

This race was by far the most interesting held on the river here in many years.

The crews are still hard at work for the regatta on August second when they will race again, and so evenly matched are the two that it will be only a guess as to who will win.

A great deal of interest has been shown in rowing this year, and some very good material is at hand.

Carl Mueller, the captain of the club, is fast getting them into shape, so it is expected that the second regatta held by the Boat club on August 2nd, will be even more interesting for the keenest rivalry imaginable, exists, especially, between the two shell crews.

After the regatta the club held a smoker and it was greatly enjoyed by all present.

MRS. McHENRY DISAPPOINTED.

Although at First Disposed to be Defiant, She Concluded Not to Attempt to Speak.

Mrs. Myra McHenry, of Kansas, who made a second visit to Alexandria Saturday for the purpose of exploiting the suffragette cause and advocating the obliteration of saloons, after announcing in the Gazette that she would speak at the northwest corner of King and Royal streets at 8 o'clock at night, failed to appear.

She requested permission of Mayor Fisher to speak, but her request was denied, whereupon she became indignant. It was generally supposed she would appear nolens volens, and a number of people gathered at the intersection of King and Royal streets early in the night. The would-be speaker, however, could not be found.

During her stay in this city Mrs. McHenry said she had been in jail several times in other cities for attempting to make open-air addresses.

ALARMS OF FIRE.

There were two alarms of fire last night, the first about the time services were being commenced in the churches, and the second shortly after they were closed.

The first was caused by a burning curtain at the residence of J. T. Wells, 905 Prince street. The flames were extinguished before any serious damage resulted.

The second alarm was caused by a fire in the house of Henry Burke, colored, 1310 Queen street. The house was badly damaged before the flames were subdued.

EXCITEMENT AT A RESORT

Narrow Escape From Drowning of Young Woman at River View Yesterday Afternoon

What is believed to have been an attempt at suicide by a handsome young woman, was frustrated at River View yesterday afternoon when a soldier from Fort Washington leaped into the water near the dock and rescued the young woman, who had jumped from the steamer Charles B. Werner. The young woman was a member of a party which had been much in evidence about the place, it is said and had lost track of her escort in the crowd.

Piqued at his apparently having gone away with another young woman and being angered at seeing him in the crowd as her boat was leaving the dock, the young woman is declared to have leaped from the deck into the water between the dock and the steamer.

The water was not deep, but she sank from sight. For a moment after the rescue all was confusion until a young soldier from Fort Washington, who had a motorboat of fast design, offered to take her to the hospital at the fort. She remained there for several hours and finally went away in the company of friends.

The soldier had a difficult time in effecting the reseue, as the young woman fought him and is declared to have nearly strangled him by grasping his neck. Girl friends tried to catch her as she jumped from the steamer and tore her skirts.

IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

William Runion Arrested for Violating His Parole.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 21.— William Runion, the man who loves to get in trouble, is in trouble again. Charged with violating his parole, he is under arrest in Harrisonburg, and will doubtless go back to the penitentiary for a longer servce.

Three years ago Runion was convicted of the charge of setting fire to his home at Broadway to get the insurance money, and given a term in the State prison. His crime was a remarkable one. He left a slow burning fuse in his house and then took the train for Louisa county. The fuse was timed to ignite rags and kerosene six hours later, but a hitch in the arrangements gave the thing away and a neighbor, seeing smoke, got into the house and prevented the fire. A telegram intercepted Runion on the railway train. While in prison his wife and child died. Governor Mann paroled Runnion last December on good behavior. A month a two ago Runion and a woman were arrested on a serious charge. The woman paid the fine and both went away. Runion this time ventured back to town and was arrested for violating his parole.

THROWN BENEATH ENGINE..

Brakeman on Norfolk and Western Railroad Instantly Killed.

Luray, Va., July 21.—B. L. Davis, a brakeman on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, was killed near Boyce, Clark county, Saturday by being knocked under the engine on which he was riding.

Davis was sitting on the pilot of the locomotive, on which was being carried a heavy piece of timber. This piece of timber had projected some distance out beyond the car line on account of the jarring of the train. Coming into contact with the fence of a cattle guard alongside the track the heavy piece of timber hurled Davis beneath the engine.

WIFE SAVES LIFE OF FARMER.

J. H. C. Grasty Attacked by Jockey Who is Driven off.

Staunton, Va., July 21.—J. H. C. Grasty's life was saved Saturday morning by his wife. Grasty, who is a candidate for the legislature, is also a magistrate.

Jim Smith, a jockey for J. A. Kennedy, who had an altercation with Mr. Grasty over a charge of trespassing on the Grasty farm, had sworn to "get" the young farmer.

The stableman called on Mr. Grasty at his home near the city yesterday morning and attacked him with a bowie knife. As Grasty came to the Valley pike in his automobile, Smith rode up and asked to have a talk with him. When Grasty got out and walked up to him Smith took him by surprize and with a blow in the eye knocked Grasty down and when he rose attacked him again with some instrument and knocked him into a hole of water over an embankmnt, jumping on him and brandishing a knife as if intending to strike at Grasty's throat.

At this time Mrs. Grasty rushed up with a small ten-shot revolver and began firing on Smith, who tried to get away quickly, begging her not to shoot. She fired six shots through a wire fence, but failed to strike Smith. Grasty on getting up fired the remaining four shots, but Smith was out of range. Smith rode off to his employer's and surgeons were sumoned to sew up some bad wounds inflicted on him by Grasty, who in the struggle had succeeded in drawing his pen knife. Smith will be laid up for several days. Grasty has some bad bruises, and small cuts, but is not much hurt.

Smith had been threatening Grasty because the latter, a magistrate, had refused to issue a warrant for the arrest of a negro at Smith's request.

Mr. Grasty is Democratic nominee for the house of delegates.

Postoffice Robbed.

Front Royal, Va., July 21.—Yeggmen at an early hour Saturday morning blew open the safe in thepostoffice and secured about $4,000 worth of stamps and $200 in currency. Several near-by residents attempted to interfere, but were shot at and driven away. The robbers escaped in an automobile.

The Washington police have been asked to watch for the yeggmen. A reward of $200 for the capture of the cracksmen has been offered.

THE LATE FATHER O'REILLY.

Many Attend Funeral Services in Richmond.

Richmond, July 21.— Where hnudreds gathered Friday to view the body of the Rev. Father James B. O'Reilly, lying in state in Sacred Heart Cathedral, thousands gathered Friday morning to attend the funeral services for the dead priest. The cathedral was packed almost to suffocation, people of all denominations crowding into the edifice to pay tribute to the memory of the dead rector. not a seat was vacant, many being forced to stand in the aisles, while policemen were kept at the doors to prevent a crush.

The funeral services began with the solemn office of the church being chanted by a choir of priests, immediately after which pontifical mass was sung by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Dennis J. O'Connell, assisted by the Rev. Father John Doherty, of Norfolk, and the Rev. Father T. J. Wilson, of Old Point Comfort.

The funeral sermon was preacheo by the Very Rev. T. J. O'Farrell, V. G., of Petersburg, an intimate friend of the dead priest. Services in the cathedral consumed an hour or more and were most impressive. Mass was celebrated by Bishop O'Connell.

Outside of the church carriages were lined up for half a mile on both Floyd and Park avenues, the line of Lauerl street stretching from Main to Franklin.

The start for the burial plot in Calvary cemetery was made shortly after 11 o'clock. It was necessary for the police to hold the crowd in check as the casket was being brought from the cathedral.

Governor Mann and his secretary, Ben P. Owen, were among those immediately following the body.

Priests and honorary pallbearers formed a wall on each side of the casket as it was borne from the cathedral vestibule to the casket. The start for the grave was made from the residence of Bishop O'Connell, on Floyd avenue, the carriages falling in line as the procession moved out along the avenue, many persons following on foot.

Bennett, over a gun accidentally shot and killed his wife Saturday at Westerhouse Creek. Mrs. Fluhart was about 28 years old and was the daughter of Charles Carmine, of Chessnonnessex, Va.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

FIRST BATTLE OF BULL RUN.

The first Battle of Bull Run occurred fifty-two years ago today, which recalls to many still living incidents in connection with that great conflict.

Three days before the Alexandrians, who formed part of the Seventeenth Virginia Infantry, as well as the artillery company which left this city, had passed through their baptism of fire at Blackburn's Ford, and hardly had the excitement incident to the fight subdued, when the war trumphet was again sounded.

Volumes have been written during the past half century on the memorable conflict at Burr Run, and the battle has long been regarded as ancient history, hence nothing new can be related.

While the carnage incident to the clash of arms upon that occasion was serious, there were ludicrous scenes connected with it which the eye witnesses have often recited.

As is well known, for some time during the battle the advantages was seemingly with the Federal troops, but a stampede set in later, when there was a dash for Washington on the part of the invaders. Wagons were overturned in narrow roads and soldiers, commissary attaches, sightseers and others struggled to get out of the range of the fire of the Confederates who were harrassing the retreating Federals.

Most of the refugees piled up in Alexandria and some of the soldiers crossed the Potomac into Maryland. A few swam across and arms were discarded.

The discomforted soldiers were footworn and hungry and in many cases their immediate wants were relieved by Alexandrians.

It was generally believed that the Confederates would occupy Alexandria and probably Washington, and the United States brig Parry immediately anchored off the city. She was followed by the gunboat Pawnee. The Confedemates, however, for some reason, failed to follow up their advantage.

PROPOSED MONUMENT TO ROOSEVELT.

It is an old proverb that a fool and his money are soon parted, but if any misguided people in Alabama are so anxious to divest themselves of their surplus wealth that they are willing to contribute to a fund to raise a monument to Theodore Roosevelt in commemoration of his sanction of the combine of the Steel Trust with the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, as has been proposed, it is time for a lot of lunacy commissions to begin their investigations.

We have harked back so often to this combination of a great trust with its only real competitor that it seems as if the last word had been said on the subject. However, the fanatical proposal to erect a monument to the man to whose jugglery the present prosperity of the Alabama steel industry is attributed bring back recollections of what remarkable transaction. With money stringency demanding relief it was suggested to Theodore Roosevelt that the proposed amalgamation would aid the situation. Who propsed it? Why, J. P. Morgan. Who profited by it? Why, among others, J. P. Morgan. Mr. Roosevelt has tried to explain before congressional investigating committees, but the explanations lack convincing force. The fact remains always that he sanctioned a move instiuted by trust magnates to shut out competiton in the stee industry.

The plants controlled by the Tennessee concern were in no danger of destruction, and the interruption of their activities could not have been greater had they remained under independent control than that which resulted from the action of the Steel Trust in shutting down its works and maintaining prices. The financial transaction had nothing to do with the prosperity or permanence of the industrial plants in Alabama. They are fortunate to be prosperous down there, but they owe it in no wise to the acts of Theodore Roosevelt.

Now that Mr. Bryan has committed political suicide once more we wonder how many of his critics would have turned down those lucrative chautauqua engagements.

The Indians are getting very much like some white peaople at last, if you can believe a news dispatch which says that the squaws are laying railroad ties while the bucks are playing poker.

The Debs who won a walking match from New York to Minneapolis is not the same Debs who has a habit of running for the presidency. The former is a winner.

The gentlemen who dressed up a team of men in wigs and advertised them as a woman's baseball team may enjoy spending those box office receipts until such time as the fans who paid them in can locate his whereabouts.

That Philadelphia bar tender who was left a quarter of a million by his uncle on condition that he remain at his job for six years will have time, money and opportunity to drink to the old gentleman's happiness very frequently.

JOHN JESSIE DEAD.

Was Twice Tred for Murder of D. T. Marshall.

Roanoke, Va., July 21.—John H. Jessie, who was twice tried for the murder of David T. Marshall, and acquitted on the final trial, was summoned before the Judge of All, at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, his death coming after a lingering illness of possibly a year's duration.

The crime for which Jesse was accused and finally acquitted, was one that aroused intense interest here. Jessie was running a lodging house at number 10 Nelson street, the place being known as the Tip Top Lodging House. David T. Marshall had a room in the place, and on the night of October 10th, 1910, had taken a drink at the bar on the first floor. Soon afterward he retired, and a noise was heard by several persons as though a struggle had takn place in the room. His dead body was found on the morning of the eleventh in the room, the face and head being badly bruised and giving evidences of having been beaten with some blunt instrument.

Jessie was accused of the crime, and on his first trial, which ended December 1th, 1910, the jury found him guilty, sentencing him to a term of ten years in the penitentiary.

An appeal was taken and the case carried to the Supreme Court, where the verdict was set aside a nd a new trial was ordered. This was held September 20 of the following year and the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

Conscience-stricken with $5,175 of the funds of the American Express Company in his pockets, Alexander S. Woods, the embezzling express messenger of East St. Louis, could not resist arrest yesterday when he saw the police load a disorderly man in the patrol wagon in Philadelphia. He walked over to the sergeant and begged to be sent to prison as he said that he had stolen the money. He was wanted in St. Louis he said, and could not stay away longer, because he felt that he had sufficiently disgraced his two young daughters. He turned over all but $36 of the money, and said he wanted to go home and face trial. Woods said he endorsed a note and stole to make good when the maker failed to pay the obligation.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess", says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good.

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had fired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and help build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for ending your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Baker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says: "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by All dealers.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tabiets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost anything that I want. For sale by all dealers.

SAVES INFANT FROM RIVER.

Hero's Child Dies at Home at About The Same Time.

Winchester, Va. July 21.— According to advices received here yesterday, the attention of the Carnegie Hero Commission will be called to David Flynn, of Morgantown, W. Va., who saved the life of an infant in the Monongehela river and then found his own child had died at home while he was thus engaged.

Clarence Robinson, of Fairmont, W. Va., and his family had gone on a visit to relatives at Morgantown and were motoring when their car crashed into a telephone pole, swerved, struck a house, and then ran into the river. All of the occupants were thrown out except Robert Robinson, 16 months old, who was carried into the river by the car, which upset, taking the child under it. Flynn, who was passing, dived twice, finally rescuing the infant uninjured. Flynn was rewarded by Mr. Robinson, and when he returned home he was told that one of his twin children, about the same age of the Robinson infant, had just died.

NWS OF THE DAY.

Three persons were killed by a train yesterday while on their way to church a mile south of Jerseyville, Ill. The buggy in which they were riding was struck by a train on the Chicago and Alton road.

In view of a freight car attached to a shifting engine and under which it is said he was crawling at the time, six-year-old George Weinholdt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Weinholdt, of Baltimore, had his left leg and arm completely severed from his body late yesterday afternoon. He was sent to Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Wrestling a razor from the hands of a barber who was shaving him, John Casey, 50 years old, gashed his throat services in the Fourth Regiment camp, from ear to ear in the insane ward of Bayview, Md., Asylum yesterday morning and died soon after.

Col. G. W. Goethals, chief engineer in charge of the construction of the Panama Canal, has notified Lieut. Col. David Du B. Gaillard, chief of the central division of the canal, that steam-shovel work in the Culebra cut section will hereafter be conducted on the assumption that Gamboa dike will be dynamited October 10. The destruction of the dike will allow Gatun Lake to flood the cut, thereby practically connecting th Atlantic and Pacific, although actual navigation of the canal probably will not be attempted for some time thereafter.

The whole kingdom of Wurttemberg, Germany, was shaken by a sharp earthquake yesterday afternoon. Many chimneys collapsed. At Suttgart and Strassburg the residents rushed into the streets.

Four thousand fans who had gone to the Union League baseball park, at Fifteenth and H streets northeast, Washington, to see a game between the "Blomer Girls" and a team of youn gmen from Loucust Point, Md., yesterday afternoon participated in what was almost a riot, when they learned that the "girls" were men disguised in wigs and feminine attire In the rush and fight to get at the players and to obtain a return of the gate receipts, one arrest was made, a policeman was struck by a brick, and the uniforms of two other policemen were torn off their backs.

Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, which will try for the America's cup in a series of races in 1914, the conditions for which have been signed up and forwarded by the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, will be named Shamrock IV.

Leaps Over Precipice.

Bristol, Va., July 21—Hurling himself from the top of a sixty-foot cliff, Angus Bolton, thirty-two years old, and prominently connected sought instant death because he believed he was suffering from an incurable disease.

Doctors gave the opinion that he had small chance to survive his injuries.

Bolton, who is the son of John Bolton, and formerly resided in Virginia, has been suffering from tuberculosis in advanced stages. He foiled to show improvement after submitting to the most modern treatment of the disease and was facing, he thought a lingering death.

He went to Milligan, Tenn., and prepared to put himself out of his misery. Ascending to the top of the cliff he leaped off and was dying when assistance reached him.

DISTURBANCES IN SEATTLE.

Marines and Sailors Attempt to "Clean Up Town."

Seattle, Wash. July 21.—A party of United States Marines and sailors from the Pacific Reserve Fleet, most of the sailors wearing the name bands of the cruisers Colorado and California, started Friday night to "clean up the town," as they expressed it, by attacking Social and Industrial Workers of the World headquarters in Seattle.

A second party of men from the Pacific reserve fleet attacked the big industrial workers' headquarters in Washington street, in the southern part of the city. The contents of the building were dragged into the street and a bon fire made of them.

A provost guard of 50 men from the fleet was hurried ashore in cutters to arrest all of the men ashore. Quiet was restored after much difficulty.

Marie Equi, the woman physician who led the disturbance at Portland, Ore., last night caused by street speakers in behalf of Industrial Workers of the World, has accepted exile from Oregon, rather than face possible confinement in an asylum. Her friends told the police she would be taken out of Portland before midnight. On this assurance she was released from jail.

Dr. Equi threatened to use poison-dipped pins on officers who attempted to arrest her.

The police were called out last night to quell an Industrial Workers of the World riot in the park block.

CRUSHED BENEATH WAGON.

Five-Year-Old Son of Farmer Fell From Load of Hay.

Elizabeth City, N. C., July 21.—Bush, the 5-year-old son of Wilson Turner, a farmer residing about four miles from the city, fell from the top of a load of hay a day or two ago and was run over by one of the wheels and badly crushed.

The little fellow had been placed on the top of the load to ride to the house out of the field. In some way he lost his hold and tumbled off. The load weighed about 1,000 pounds. The wagon wheel ran across the childs abdomen.

FLAG RETURNED TO VIRGINIA.

Was Captured by Michigan Cavalry at Battle of Falling Water.

New York, July 21.—The recent Gettysburg reunion brought out an incident which was warmly commended by the veterans of both armies, when Col. Wm. D. Mann, of this city, returned to Governor Wm. H. Mann, of Virginia, a flag of the fifty-fifth Virginia Infantry.

The flag was captured by Colonel Mann's regiment, the Seventh Michigan Cavalry, from the Confederate Infantry at the Battle of Falling Waters on July 14, 1863. In the engagement the flag, which bore the marks of many hard fought battles, was gallantly defended. The Confederates were finally force dto surrender, as their retreat from their position to the ford was cut off, and the flag fell into the hands of Colonel's Mann regiment.

Sergeant Holton took possession of the colors when the color bearer of the fifty-fifth Virginia Infantry was struck down. He delivered the flag to Colonel Mann, who in turn delivered it to the Secretary of war Stanton, at the War Department in Washington. Secretary Stanton remarked that the flag had evidently been through hot fire, complimented Col. Mann's regiment upon capturing it and then returned it to Colonel Mann with the words: "I present this to you. It will be interesting in the future of your state."

Colonel Mann carefully guarded the flag for nearly fifty years. He finally decided that he would return it to Virginia that it might be preserved among that State's trophies.

Wrecked by a Bomb.

New York, July 21.—Exploding with a terrific roar a dynamite bomb, the second to be placed in the building within two months, drove nearly a score of families in panic from the 5-story tenement at 756 Eight avenue, near Forty-seventh street, yesterday. Men, women and children crowded the fire escapes and stairways, and there was the greatest confusion, many barely escaping being trampled in the mad rush for safety.

It was only two months ago that a bomb was found in the building, and many of the families have since lived in fear of a Black Hand outrage.

The explosion not only wrecked Ludalo's barber shop, but also hurled things about in Hirsch's store and did much damage to the cellar shop of H. Jaffe, a dealer in glass.

Americus Davis, a former resident of Alexandria, died in Washington Saturday.

RETAKE ADRIANOPLE.

Enormous Losses and Great Monetary Loss During Balkan War.

London, July 21.—The Turks have re-occupied Adrianople which they so valiantly defended against the Balkan allies several months ago, and, not content with their entry into the city, are said to be pillaging and committing many atrocities. The entry was made early Sunday morning. There was a short conflict with a small force of Bulgarians defending the city, after which the Turks swept into the city unobstructed. The Bashi Bazouks then began an orgy of burning and pillaging and committing other atrocities. This was proceeding at the time the dispatch was sent from Sofia.

Rome, July 21.—The enormous losses by the various belligerent countries comprising the Balkan states and their enemy, Turkey, during the two Balkan wars are estimated by the correspondent of the Corriere Della Sera, who is now in Macedonia, to reach the astounding total of 400,000 lives, including the victims of massacres and cholera and other epidemics. The monetary loss, the correspondent adds, must amount to at least $1,300,000,000.
